Millionaire Husband Fails to Reply to Charges in Divorce

Case.

NEWPORT, R. I., March 18.-Mrs. Elsie Whalen Goelet, prominent in New York and Newport society circles, was granted a divorce yesterday from Robert Goelet on the ground of extreme cruelty. Both are to have custody of their older son, Ogden, aged six. The mother is to keep Peter, aged two years, their only other child, until he is six years old, when she was in court and the suit was uncontested. The testimony was by depositions.

Justice Barrow, in announcing his decision, said:

Extreme cruelty may consist of insultphysical violence. The testimony shows the continuance of insulting, vulgar and abusive language by Goelet toward his wife, accompanied by numerous petty acts to annoy and embarrass her. The effect has been, according to the testimony, a serious impairment of her health and the conditions fully warrant granting this divorce."

In schoolboy fashion to do as we are told and ask no jquestions.

"What is the foreign policy that requires such humiliating, cowardly, craven action on our part? What are the delicate matters that demand this price?"

Action Is Deferred.

Senator Jones asked immediate consid-

Socially Notable at Newport.

Elsie Whalen, the second daughter of Henry Whalen of a well known Philadelphia family, became socially notable in the Newport season of 1905, as a debu tante. She was married to Robert Goelet the only son of Mrs. Ogden Goelet, at the only son of Mrs. Ogden Goelet, at Wayne, Pa., June 14, 1906. Miss Alice Roosevelt was a bridesmaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Goelet passed nearly every summer at Newport. Rumors of an estrangement were current during the latter part of the 1913-season, and ou January 21 of this year Mrs. Goelet filed with the diverse of the season.

Robert Goelet was born in 1870. He was graduated from Harvard in 1900 and has been active since in Newport society. His sister, Miss May Goelet, wedded the Duke of Roxburgh.

NEW PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL.

Former Vice President Gomez Succeeds to Higher Office. Wenceslau Braz Pereira Gomez, forme

ly vice president, has been elected presi dent of Brazil, to succeed President For seca, who under the constitution could not succeed himself. Urbano dos Santos, a federal senator for Maranhao, was elected vice president. Dispatches to the Brazilian embassy brought the news. The presidential elections in Brazil were fixed for March 1, but, owing to the disthe slightest infraction would result in turbed condition of affairs, were delayed, and March 5 the Brazilian government proclaimed a state of siege in the cities of Rio Janeiro, Nictheroy and Petropolis. A strict censorship over the telegraph lines has been maintained since then, a partment of Agriculture. Spring housecleaning is going on at the Department of Agriculture, under the di-rection of Robert M. Reese, chief clerk. All the old desks, chairs, waste baskets and other fixtures that have outlived their and other fixtures that have outlived their usefulness were collected yesterday, to the pile being added samples of foods, drinks, chewing gum, catsup, breakfast food, insecticides and other things seized under the foods and drugs act. C. B. Lower, chief of the supply division, held an auction sale, and what was left was carted to the flats opposite the War College and burned.

DISPOSED OF AT AUCTION. Articles Not Needed Sold by De-

HOSPITAL BENEFIT PLANNED.

Ball Will Be Held for Eye, Ear and Throat Institution.

The executive committee of the Washington Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital has decided to give a ball at Rauscher's Friday, April 17, for the purpose of raising funds for the support of the hospital. It is the especial desire of the founders of this institution to care for those patients who are absolutely without funds. To this end a free clinic will be held daily, except Sundays and holidays, and, when necessary, such patients will be taken into the hospital and receive care and treatment free. The old Logan house, at 4 Iowa circle, has been remodeled and equipped for the purpose.

shall not know how to deal with other matters of even greater delicacy and nearer consequence if you do not grant it to me in ungrudging measure. The Special Correspondence of The Star.

WINCHESTER, Va., March 18, 1914.
Charles Mulliken. former president of the Virginia Horse Show Association, and former vice president of the Washington, died Monday night. The body was taken from Boyce, Va., today to St. Louis, his former home, for burial.

Mr. Mulliken died from the effects of a stroke of paralysis suffered February 25 at his country home at Millwood, Clarke county. Brief funeral services were held at his home this morning by Rev. John M. Robeson, rector of Old Christ P. E. Church at Millwood, of which Mr. Mulliken was a member.

Relatives Accompany Body.

Mrs. Mulliken and Miss Carter Mulliken, and Mrs. Mulliken and Miss Carter Mulliken, and Mrs. Mulliken's mother and sister, Mrs. Benjamin O'Fallon and Miss Ethel C. O'Fallon, accompanied the body

Menday night. The body was taken in the words of the administration. What does that mean? It is an appeal directed especially to democrats. Can they resist the implied command to be enforced if needed by the rewards and penalties of federal patronage? It is not for them to reason why, it is for them to obey or politically die. I want to draw from these words a conclusion honorable to my country, but it is difficult to do so.

"We are at peace with all the world. What serious troubles have we? What are the 'other matters of even greater delicacy and nearer consequence' if not the Mexican situation. That this legislation is a part of the price that this nation must pay to get the help of a foreign power in the adjustment of the unfortunate Mexican situation is a humiliating conclusion, but I see no escape from it. That it is a part of an understanding expressed or tacitly implied restanding expressed or tacitly implied restanding expressed or tacitly implied restanding the message and by the circumstances surrounding its delivery.

Change as to Message.

Change as to Message.

"It has been repeatedly announced that no message would be sent to Congress on the tolls question. A British subject was murdered in Mexico by rebel authordollars on improvements and made it one lities whom Great Britain does not recogof the most attractive country homes in nize. Our position prevents Great Briof the most attractive country homes in Virginia. The estate of nearly 300 acres was recently bought by Capt. Philip E. M. Walker, U. S. A., retired, of Winchester, who last year married Mrs. Benham, the widow of Lieut, Harry K. Benham of the United States Navy, of Washington.

Interested in Horse Shows.

Mr. Mulliken was interested in many enterprises in Virginia and Washington. He also was secretary of the Clarke County Horse and Colt Show Association, and made it the leading show on the Virginia circuit. He helped to put the National Capital horse show on its feet.

"It is reported that as one of the conditions, Great Britain will seek reparation for its losses through Confederate bonds issued during the civil war by a plan sanctioned by this government, under which, if successfully applied, the burden of reparation will fall on the southern states.

Tells of Humiliation.

"These suggestions were almost unbelievable, but what immediately followed proves that there was a basis for them. We were called together in the House of is to share the custody of the child with Representatives like rebellious schoolthe father. Head of A. F. of L. Also Agrees to Delay in Making Act Operative. A delay of a year in putting into effect the proposed legislation to give each state the power to impose the same conditions on convict-made goods of other states that are imposed upon its own convict-made goods was agreed to by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today, in appearing before the Senate interstate commerce committee. He urged the immediate passage of the bill.

Officials of the Connecticut penitentiary opposed the bill, declaring it would interfere with the reforms instituted at their
